

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the HBA?

The Home Builders Association of Kern County is a builder trade association that draws its membership from those who work in the residential and commercial construction industry or who provide building related services to those firms. It provides a forum through which these businesses can work together to keep informed regarding new and proposed policies advanced by the local, state and federal governments which affect the housing industry.

What does the HBA do locally?

The Association acts as a source of timely and reliable information concerning the state of the local building industry. The Association works to eliminate overly restrictive and costly building laws and regulations that drive up the cost of housing. The HBA builder member is committed to offering the highest quality product at the most affordable price.

The HBA provides organized leadership and representation in local governmental matters affecting the building industry. HBA members have a full time advocate watching local government on behalf of builders throughout the county. The Association has made itself a front line participant in the activities of local government and is continually monitoring laws and ordinances, developed on the local levels, that could affect the cost of housing and the cost of development, even the ability to build.

What does the HBA do statewide and nationally?

Just as the local HBA monitors the local government, becoming a member of the Home Builders Association, through membership dues payment, you are also a member of the California Building Industry Association, that watches state legislation affecting the industry, and the National Association of Home Builders, which monitors national issues affecting the building industry. By becoming a member of the HBA, the individual is a part of a strong united organization of builders and associates that maintain a strong voice, speaking out to protect and further the building industry.

What is the BIPAC?

The HBA maintains a Political Action Committee fund, which is used by the Association to support political candidates that are supportive of the goals of the industry. Through funding support and lobbying efforts, the association keeps itself close to the city and county elected officials working for the betterment of the housing industry and the community, as well as, through building a quality and affordable product.

WHAT HAS HBA DONE FOR ITS MEMBERS LATELY?

- Restored $12 million in funding for Kern County builders through the CHFA School Fee Rebate Program
- Continue to save home builders over $1 million per year in higher, alternative school impact fees imposed under S.B. 50.
- Worked tirelessly to save BIAKC member companies in excess of $40 Million in impact fees in the City of Bakersfield, especially in school facility fees in eight separate school districts in Metropolitan Bakersfield.
- Saved Builder Members in Bakersfield, Delano and Arvin over $400,000 in school fees in one year alone!
- Defeated numerous local anti-growth measures, including a Tulare-style rural valley lands plan, a moratorium on new subdivisions in West Bakersfield, and an agricultural element in the General Plan update.
- HBA participates in the Voluntary Affirmative Marketing Agreement (VAMA) which satisfies FHA Fair Housing requirements and simplifies reporting requirements for all Builder Members.
- Saves Builder Members 8 to 25 percent on their State Fund Workers Compensation policy premiums.
- Worked with the Joint Legislative Conference Committee of the California State Legislature to appropriate $50 Million for CalHFA fee rebates to home builders. The bill was passed by the Assembly and Senate, and approved by voters in November, 2002.
- Helped amend Federal law to allow use of FHA-insured mortgages for homes built to the east of Arvin that were categorized incorrectly as a high flood-risk area.
- Successfully litigated against the first California school district attempting to implement fees under Senate Bill 50. HBA obtained an admission from the district that the fees were illegal and unjustified, and the settlement forced refunds to HBA member builders exceeding $250,000.
- Saved builders and developers $200,000 per year by shifting all costs expended on County Planning Commission to the General Fund.
- Successfully worked with the City of Bakersfield in amending an antiquated and restrictive agricultural element that was proposed as part of the Metropolitan General Plan five-year update.
- Thanks to you, our new members, HBA of Kern County has been the fastest-growing chapter in California since 2002!
